

Creating a better response to answer the analysis and interpretation portions of the critical analysis.

- If you write that something from the media item is "recognizable" or "unfamiliar" you must support it with a specific example and be precise as possible.
- Specific details from the example will satisfy "analysis".
- A detailed explanation of what _____ means to you will satisfy "interpretation".

GOOD

The school setting of the Harry Potter books is recognizable to me. I am a student much like the characters in the books and attend classes throughout the week.

BETTER

The school setting of the Harry Potter books is recognizable to me. For example, Harry, Ron and Hermione will attend a potions class together and then walk the halls of the castle to go to herbology. I am a student much like the characters in the books and throughout the week attend classes like psychology and chemistry at Camden County College.

SATISFACTORY

I found High School Musical the movie to be unfamiliar because the actors are part of singing groups. I was never part of a singing group, so I am unfamiliar with this.

BETTER

I found High School Musical the movie to be unfamiliar because the actors are part of singing groups. The characters Troy Bolton, Gabriella Montez, Ryan Evans, and Taylor McKessie have joined together to practice singing and performing for the upcoming production of Godspell. I was never part of a singing group. With my friends Linda, Hal and Jamie we would go to the shore every summer but we never had a singing group.
